

Conditions Governing the Scholarship

The Gilbert & Sullivan Society of Bermuda Theatre Arts Scholarship is funded by the Gilbert & Sullivan Society of Bermuda.

Marjorie Stanton Scholarship & John Barnett Scholarship

These scholarships are awarded annually, and successful applicants will be awarded $2500.

The scholarship funds must be used to contribute to the costs of tuition, room and board at the place of study, and to the costs of travel to and from the place of study. The total value of all scholarships received cannot exceed the associated costs.

Successful applicants are not barred from subsequent applications for this scholarship, but must demonstrate that a high academic standard has been maintained.

Eligibility

Applicants must be Bermudian or have sufficient connection with Bermuda to be regarded by the Society as Bermudian.

The applicants must give proof of being enrolled in an undergraduate or post-graduate course in Musical Performance, Voice, Theatre Performance or Stage Production/Design. Dance programs are not eligible.

Criteria

The Scholarship will be awarded on the following basis:

- a) Art and theatre experiences (including past involvement in Gilbert & Sullivan productions as cast, crew or volunteer);
- b) Academic achievement;
- c) Involvement in community and public service activities;
- d) Leadership qualities and achievement in extra-curricular activities; and
- e) Outline of scholar's plans to finance his/her education including an estimate of the associated costs.

Required Documents

Applicants must submit ALL of the following documents (incomplete applications may not be considered):

- 1) Completed Application Form;
- 2) Academic Certificates and/or Transcripts with full details of grades attained in the various subjects;
- 3) Evidence of acceptance from an approved university or institution of higher learning;
- 4) Evidence of Bermudian nationality or connection with Bermuda;
- 5) Letter from parent/guardian/other/personal undertaking to accept responsibility for additional educational costs;
- 6) A note of other awards/scholarships that have been applied for including the amounts and the current status (e.g. received, pending, refused)
- 7) Copy of syllabus of course being taken;
- 8) Digital head shot.

Completed Application Forms along with a digital photo must be emailed to scholarships2@gands.bm and received by no later than July 29th, 2022.
